"I returned to China, where I visited longkong, Canton, Makao, Shanghai, Cheefoo, Taku, Tientsin and Peking. Canton's native quarter is a very in-teresting place. It is undoubtedly one of the fiithlest places in the world. From China I went to Japan, where spent six weeks before I returned home in the Mongolia.

"The traveller sees but very little in-dication of the war in the Orient beond the great number of soldiers who are to be seen everywhere in Japan. n the larger cities there seems to be a soldler quartered in every store, ter house and private residence. It seems that the regular barracks are too small to accommodate the great mass of reserves which has been called out These are quartered with private citi zens, the Government paying a small remuneration for their maintenance

"I saw, however, one or two indica tions of the hostilities which are now raging between Japan and Russia. A the entrance to the Inland Sea, just close to Moji, we passed the wrecks of the Sado Maru and another transport squadron some time ago. The Sade Maru had settled considerably by the stern but the Japanese are in hopes o raising her. The other transport was almost completely submerged. On my way to Tientsin in one of the Chica Merchants' Co. steamers we had to lie at anchor one entire night off Weihai wel. The steamship people dare no allow their vessels to steam at night in the Gulf of Pechili on account of danger from the floating mines which are said to be adrift there.

"An amusing feature of the trip was the fact that I met a great many Hono lulu people. There seems to be a large number of them all over the Orient. In every city where I stopped and on many steamers on which I traveled I met Honoiulu people. At Shanghal es pecially I met several ex-Honoiulultes "Volcano" Marshall was there con-nected with some paper and doing weit. Herbert Melton Ayres is still ou the Shanglai Times. AN EXAMPLE.

A man came into our store a while ago who had worn made-to-order shoes for twenty years. He came in to buy polish, not shoes, but noticing a Hanan shoe that pleased his eye tried it on and was so delighted with the feel of it on his foot that he bought it. He is now wearing nothing but our Hanan shoes and tells us that he gets more comfort than ever before.
